This text is disseminated via the Open Education Resource (OER) LibreTexts Project (<https://LibreTexts.org>) and like the thousands of other texts available within this powerful platform, it is freely available for reading, printing, and "consuming."

The LibreTexts mission is to bring together students, faculty, and scholars in a collaborative effort to provide an accessible, and comprehensive platform that empowers our community to develop, curate, adapt, and adopt openly licensed resources and technologies; through these efforts we can reduce the financial burden born from traditional educational resource costs, ensuring education is more accessible for students and communities worldwide.

Most, but not all, pages in the library have licenses that may allow individuals to make changes, save, and print this book. Carefully consult the applicable license(s) before pursuing such effects. Instructors can adopt existing LibreTexts texts or Remix them to quickly build course-specific resources to meet the needs of their students. Unlike traditional textbooks, LibreTexts' web based origins allow powerful integration of advanced features and new technologies to support learning.

LibreTexts is the adaptable, user-friendly non-profit open education resource platform that educators trust for creating, customizing, and sharing accessible, interactive textbooks, adaptive homework, and ancillary materials. We collaborate with individuals and organizations to champion open education initiatives, support institutional publishing programs, drive curriculum development projects, and more.

Overview

To effectively utilize this workbook, instructors should navigate through the LibreTexts platform, which includes separate chapters corresponding to the original textbook New Directions in Chicanx and Latinx Studies. In each workbook chapter, you will find study questions (crosswords or multiple-choice and reflective journal prompts—with supplemental links and guidance) designed to enhance student engagement. Additionally, quiz banks offer fill-in-the-blank and actual/false questions, all designed for flexible use in teaching materials and assignments.

These resources are open access, allowing for copying, adaptation, and use with proper credit to the original authors.

Utilizing Workbook Questions via ADAPT

If you want to utilize these sources directly, you can access the questions provided through the ADAPT system. To use ADAPT, you can create an instructor account to link selected questions with your Course Learning Management Software like Canvas. Assignments are directly imported into your course site, and the grade book can be linked for students' points. Please note that your campus may need to enable ADAPT as an external tool for your LMS. To learn more about ADAPT, visit the tutorials available on their website and consider reviewing the recorded webinar, "Integrating ADAPT in Canvas," provided by the Academic Senate for the California Community Colleges Open Educational Resource Initiative (ASCCC OERI).

Adapting or Expanding Workbook Questions via LibreStudio/H5P

For those looking to update, adapt, or expand on these questions, you can use LibreStudio/H5P to customize, expand, edit, or adapt these materials for your purposes. All of the questions included in this Workbook are available as a LibreStudio Collection. For further information and resources, explore LibreStudio and review the following links:

- "H5P Part I – Introduction to H5P and LibreTexts Studio"
- "H5P Part II – Introduction to ADAPT"
- Additional new and archived ASCCC OERI webinars are available on their Webinars and Events page.

CHAPTER OVERVIEW

Chapter 1: Workbook- Foundations and Contexts

Overview

Chapter 1: Foundations and Contexts of New Directions in Chicanx and Latinx Studies is an introduction and overview of the Chicanx and Latinx Studies field. In this chapter, the readers learn about key historical, cultural, and social aspects of Chicanx and Latinx communities' experiences.
