This text is disseminated via the Open Education Resource (OER) LibreTexts Project (<https://LibreTexts.org>) and like the thousands of other texts available within this powerful platform, it is freely available for reading, printing, and "consuming."

The LibreTexts mission is to bring together students, faculty, and scholars in a collaborative effort to provide an accessible, and comprehensive platform that empowers our community to develop, curate, adapt, and adopt openly licensed resources and technologies; through these efforts we can reduce the financial burden born from traditional educational resource costs, ensuring education is more accessible for students and communities worldwide.

Most, but not all, pages in the library have licenses that may allow individuals to make changes, save, and print this book. Carefully consult the applicable license(s) before pursuing such effects. Instructors can adopt existing LibreTexts texts or Remix them to quickly build course-specific resources to meet the needs of their students. Unlike traditional textbooks, LibreTexts' web based origins allow powerful integration of advanced features and new technologies to support learning.

LibreTexts is the adaptable, user-friendly non-profit open education resource platform that educators trust for creating, customizing, and sharing accessible, interactive textbooks, adaptive homework, and ancillary materials. We collaborate with individuals and organizations to champion open education initiatives, support institutional publishing programs, drive curriculum development projects, and more.

3: A Litany for the University

---

O, Heavenly Father, Who has made us and all of creation:

Have mercy.

You, O Lord, are the source of all goodness and wisdom;

You, O Lord, desire that all come to know You;

You, O Lord, sent Your Son to be the Light of the world;

Shine your truth and mercy into our lives.

O, Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, Who has saved us and offers life to all: Have mercy.

You, O Lord, are the Light of the world;

You, O Lord, are the Bishop and Overseer of our souls;

You, O Lord, with the Father, sent the Holy Spirit to illumine our lives;

Shine your truth and mercy into our lives.

O, Holy Spirit, Who sanctifies and brings Divine comfort:

Have mercy.

You, O Lord, instruct and bring wisdom through the Gospel;

You, O Lord, order our lives in Your truth;

You, O Lord, diffuse hope as You guide us;

Shine your truth and mercy into our lives.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bring us into the way of life, righteousness, and truth. Bless the work of our various vocations as we are called to serve. Hear our prayer and bring us to your eternal joys now and forever. Amen.

4: Church Year Collects

First Sunday in Advent

Stir up, we implore You, Your power, O Lord, and come, that by Your protection we may be rescued from the threatening perils of our sins and saved by Your mighty deliverance, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Christmas Eve

O God, who has made this most holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light, grant, we implore You, that, as we have known on earth the mysteries of that Light, we may also come to the fullness of its joys in heaven; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Epiphany of Our Lord

O God, who by the leading of a star did manifest Your only-begotten Son to the Gentiles, mercifully grant that we, who know You now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of Your glorious Godhead; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Ash Wednesday

Almighty and everlasting God, who hates nothing that You have made and forgives the sins of all those who are penitent, create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain from You, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary

We implore You, O Lord, pour Your grace into our hearts, that, as we have known the incarnation of Your Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by His cross and Passion we may be brought to the glory of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Palm Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, who sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon Him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross that all mankind should follow the example of His great humility, mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of His patience and also be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Vigil of Easter

O God, who did enlighten this most holy night with the glory of the Lord's resurrection, preserve in all Your people the spirit of adoption which You have given, so that, renewed in body and soul, they may offer You a pure service; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Resurrection of Our Lord

Almighty God, who through Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, has overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life, we humbly implore you that, as You put into our minds good desires, so by Your continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Day of Pentecost

O God, who taught the hearts of Your faithful people by sending them the light of Your Holy Spirit, grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

St. Michael and All Angels

O everlasting God, who has ordained and constituted the services of angels and men in a wonderful order, mercifully grant that, as Your holy angels always serve you in heaven, so by your appointment they may help and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

All Saints' Day

O almighty God, who has knit together Your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of Your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord, grant us grace so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those unspeakable joys which You have prepared for those who unfeignedly love You; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

5: Prayers for Various Situations

Before We Teach

Lord of Truth, Whose wisdom spills over into our lives through Your Word, grant us Your blessing as we prepare to teach and serve. Season our words and our teaching with Your grace, that they may be effective for the growth and development of our students. Accomplish in our work what You desire. Lead and guide us in our vocations, that those who hear and learn may benefit and be enriched; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

God of wisdom and strength, You have blessed me with gifts of intellect, skill, and compassion. As I meet my students this day, grant me wisdom that my words might proclaim the truth and give glory to You. Help me always to see my students as souls created in your image and entrusted to my care. Open my ears to understand their needs and empower my teaching that they might grow in knowledge, wisdom, and faith in you, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessed Lord, You came into the world as the Divine Light to illumine it through Your Truth and tender mercies. You entered the lives of people to teach, heal, and give everlasting hope through Your cross and empty tomb. Instill this same Divine hope in us through Your teaching. Send Your gift of grace to all who gather here today, that they may be encouraged and filled with joy in the work of educating. Bless our work as we rest in the cross of our Savior. Prepare, encourage, and strengthen us as we set about the task of teaching and helping students grow. Use us as a beacon of this Divine Light to inspire students to learn in preparation for their vocations. In all things, shower Your creation with your Divine goodness, that all may find in You an ever-present help and a holy consolation for our lives. In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Before A Meeting

O, Heavenly Father, the Giver of all that is good and holy, You bless the lives of Your faithful people with wisdom, insight, and discernment through the Gospel. As we gather for this meeting, fill us with Your holy virtues and reflection seasoned by Your grace. Guide our words, actions, and decisions, that we may glorify Your name, while bringing relief and help to others, that those we serve may experience the Divine love of Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

At the Beginning of Class

O Jesus, Teacher and Shepherd of souls, You are the Word made flesh Who instructs in the ways of love and truth. Attend to us as we learn and grow in the classroom. Illuminate our lives with holy wisdom, that our discourse and instruction may equip us to love, serve, and aid those around us, through the Father and the Holy Spirit, Who with You are one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer for Unity

O God our Father, Your Son Jesus prayed that we might be one, even as You and the Son are one. Grant us a spirit of charity and humility that, despite our differences, we may discern Your will and live together in harmony. By the power of the Spirit, unite us in decisions and actions that give glory to You and serve our community, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Students

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (Gal 5:22-23, ESV)

Heavenly Father, You created all things by your Holy Word. Please help my students today know that they are loved by You and made in your image, and that You have blessed them with wisdom, discernment, strength, and all the fruits of your Holy Spirit. Help your light shine through them today as they seek to do your will. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

A Prayer for the Workday

O Lord, grant that I may meet all that this coming day brings with spiritual tranquility. Grant that I may fully surrender myself to Your Holy Will. At every hour, direct and support me in all things so that regardless of what comes my way, You will teach me to accept it with a calm soul and the firm conviction that all are subject to Your Holy Will. Direct my thoughts and feelings in all my words and actions. In all expected or unexpected occurrences, help me remember that You have sent everything my way and promise to watch over me continually. O Lord, grant me the strength to embrace the coming day by following your example of grace and wisdom. Grant that I may deal straightforwardly and with love for every person I meet today, neither embarrassing nor saddening them. Direct my will, teach me to pray, and help me remember that I am Your child. Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Illumination

In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (Matt 5:16, ESV)

Heavenly Father, you are the source of all goodness. Shine your light on me today through your Holy Spirit, that I may share the love of Christ with all whom I encounter today. Give me strength to endure difficult situations, help me model patience in moments of stress, and grant me wisdom to discern your will in all things. I pray this all in the name of Jesus Christ my Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen.

Prayer for Humility

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (Mic 6:8, ESV)

Father in Heaven, I thank you for your Word, and that you have given me all I need to be the hands and feet of your Son, Jesus Christ, who died on a cross so that I might live as love and hope in a dark world. Forgive me for sometimes trying to do things all on my own. Help me tune out the many voices around me, and strive to tune in to Yours first, seeing others as more important than myself, and walk in humility with You; in Jesus' Holy Name I pray. Amen.

Prayer When Facing a Difficult Decision

God of grace and wisdom, whose love is perfect and eternal, speak to me through Your Spirit in this difficult time. Give me wisdom to discern Your will. As I weigh the alternatives, lead me to a decision that not only glorifies You but also serves my neighbor. Calm the fears that might produce paralysis or indecision. Be my strength and encouragement, no matter what the outcome of this decision. I ask these things, trusting in Your mercy, through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayer in A Time of Uncertainty

Lord, I look to you! My heart is troubled. I find myself in a place of fear and uncertainty. Nevertheless, in all my troubles, Lord, I will put my trust in you. You are the Maker of heaven and earth; nothing is too big for you. Lord, I am confident that you care for me and You watch over my coming and going. I lift my prayers to you putting my trust in you. My soul will rest in your faithfulness I will look and find your help in this time of need.

6: The Paschal Homily of Saint John Chrysostom

---

The Paschal Homily of Saint John Chrysostom

Is there anyone here who is a devout lover of God?

Let them enjoy this beautiful bright festival.

Is there anyone who is a grateful servant?

Let them rejoice and enter into the joy of their Lord!

Are there any now weary with fasting?

Let them now receive their wages!

If they have toiled from the first hour, let them receive their due reward;

If any have come after the third hour, let him with gratitude join in the Feast! And he that arrived after the sixth hour, let him not doubt; for he shall have sustained no loss.

And if any have delayed until the ninth hour, let him not hesitate; but let him come too.

And he who arrived only at the eleventh hour, let him not be afraid by reason of his delay.

For the Lord is gracious and receives the last even as the first. He gives rest to him who comes at the eleventh hour, as well as to him who toiled from the first.

To this one He gives, and upon another He bestows.

He accepts the work as he greets the endeavor.

The deed He honors and the intention He commends.

Let us all enter into the joy of the Lord! First and last alike receive your reward;

rich and poor, rejoice together! Sober and slothful, celebrate the day!

You that have kept the fast, and you that have not, rejoice today for the Table is richly laden!

Feast royally on it, the calf is a fatted one.

Let no one go away hungry; partake, all, of the cup of faith. Enjoy all the riches of His goodness! Let no one grieve at his poverty, for the universal kingdom has been revealed.

Let no one mourn that he has fallen again and again; for forgiveness has risen from the grave.

Let no one fear death, for the death of our Savior has set us free.

He has destroyed it by enduring it.

He destroyed Hades when he descended into it.

He put it into an uproar even as it tasted of His flesh. Isaiah foretold this when he said,

You, O Hell, have been troubled by encountering Him below.
Hell was in an uproar because it was done away with.
It was in an uproar, because it was mocked.
It was in an uproar, for it was destroyed. It is in an uproar, for it is annihilated.
It is in an uproar because it is now made captive.
Hell took a body, and it discovered God.
It took earth, and encountered Heaven.
It took what it saw, and was overcome by what it did not see.
O death, where is your sting?
O Hades, where is your victory?
Christ is risen, and you, O death, are annihilated!
Christ is risen, and the evil ones are cast down!
Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice!
Christ is risen, and life is liberated!
Christ is risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead; for Christ, having risen from the dead, is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and power forever and ever.
Amen.

7.1: Psalm 1

---

Psalm 1

Beatus vir

Blessed is the man who follows not the wicked's advise,
nor joins the sinner's path,
nor sits among the scoffers.

The Lord's instruction is his delight, and on it meditates day and night.

He is like a tree long-planted by free-flowing streams that yields its fruit in season, whose leaves can never wither.

He prospers in all he does.

Not so the wicked, not so;
they are like wind-driven chaff,
and shall have no standing in the Judgment;
neither shall sinners be seen in the congregation of the just,
for the Lord knows the way of the just,
but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Gracious Father, in Holy Baptism you rooted us along the river of life flowing from You and the Lamb. May His cross be for us the Tree of Life in paradise with all Your blesséd saints; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.2: Psalm 2

---

Psalm 2

Quare fremuerunt gentes

Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

The kings of the earth take their stand,
the rulers conspire against the Lord and His Anointed, saying,

“Let us break free of Their chains, cast off from us Their cords.”

The One enthroned in the heavens laughs;
the Lord holds them in derision.

He will speak, then, to them in His wrath,
terrify them in His fury:

“I have installed My king on Zion, My holy mountain.”

I will proclaim the Lord’s decree:

He said to Me, “You are My Son;
today have I begotten You.

Ask Me, and I will give You the nations as Your inheritance, the ends of the earth as Your possession.

You shall break them with a rod of iron, dash them in pieces like pottery.”

Be wise, then, you kings;

Be warned, rulers of earth.

Serve the Lord in fear;
rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish on the way,
for His wrath is quickly kindled.

Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

Lord God, You gave the nations of the world as the inheritance of Your Son, who lives and reigns forever. Grant that all the world may willingly submit to His rule and serve Him in fear and in hope; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.3: Psalm 3

---

Psalm 3

Domine, quid multiplicati

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

How numerous, Lord, are my foes,

so many rise against me;

so many say of me,

“God will not save him.” Selah

But You, Lord, are a shield around me, my glory and the lifter of my head.

I cried aloud to the Lord,

and He heard me from His holy mountain. Selah

I lay down and slept;

I woke, for the Lord sustains me.

I will not be afraid

though ten thousand surround and assail me.

Arise, Lord! My God, save me!

For You have slapped all my enemies on the cheek,

You have broken the teeth of the wicked.

Salvation belongs to the Lord;

may Your blessing be on Your people. Selah

Lord our God, King of the Universe, You are our shield and defense, even as You were for Your Son as He faced His holy Passion. Bless us in Him, and at the last, raise us to life with Him forever; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.4: Psalm 4

---

Psalm 4

Cum invocarem exaudivit me

For the Chief Musician; with stringed instruments.

A Psalm of David.

Answer me when I call, God of my vindication.

You gave me space when I was trapped.

Have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

How long, sons of men, will you turn my glory into shame?

How long will you love what is worthless,

and seek what is false? Selah

Know that the Lord has set the pious apart for Himself;

the Lord will hear when I call to Him.

Tremble with fear, yet do not sin.

Meditate in your heart as you lie in bed,

and be still. Selah

Offer right sacrifices, and trust in the Lord.

There are many who say, "Who can bring us better times?"

Let Your face lighten us, Lord,

for You have put more joy in my heart than they have whose grain and wine abound.

I can lie down and sleep in peace,

for You alone, Lord, let me live secure.

O God, who orders all things through Your Son, give us throughout this day a joyful heart and a clear conscience, that when we come to its end we may lie down and sleep in peace in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Or

O God, through the night of His agony in the garden, His arrest, and His trial, Your beloved Son found rest in You and Your promises. Turn Your face to us, that we may know His peace and the security of His forgiveness; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.5: Psalm 8

---

Psalm 8

Domine, Dominus noster

For the Chief Musician: according to the Gittith.

A Psalm of David.

Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth.

Your splendor spans the heavens.

By the mouth of babes and nursing infants

You have fixed a fortress in the face of Your foes, to silence both foe and avenger.

When I look at Your heavens,

the work of Your fingers,

the moon and the stars which You set in place,

what is Man that You are mindful of Him,

the Son of Man that You care for Him?

You made Him a little less than the angels,

then crowned Him with glory and honor.

You gave Him dominion over the works of Your hands;

You put everything under His feet:

all sheep and oxen,

animals in the wild as well;

the birds of the air, the fish of the sea;

everything that lurks in the sea.

Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth.

Almighty Creator, in the Humiliation of Your Son You made Him less than the angels; and in His Exaltation crowned Him with glory and honor, submitting everything under His just and gracious rule. Grant that we may ever join the little children whose praises celebrate the splendors of Your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.6: Psalm 11

---

Psalm 11

For the Chief Musician. Of David.

In Domino confide

I have taken refuge in the Lord.

How dare you say, "Flee as a bird to your mountain, for the wicked are bending their bows, they're setting their arrows on the string to shoot from the shadows at the upright of heart!"

How dare you say, "If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

The Lord is in His holy temple;

the Lord, whose throne is in heaven.

His eyes see; they observe the sons of Adam.

The Lord tests the upright and the wicked;

He despises those who love violence.

May He rain fiery coals and brimstone on the wicked;

may scorching wind be their allotted cup.

For the Lord is just; He loves covenant justice.

The upright will live before Him.

Mighty Lord, gracious Father, when the foundations of society are destroyed; when marriage, family, and truth are perverted, You are our refuge still; Your reign is everlasting. Give us courage to trust Your covenant justice in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

7.7: Psalm 16

---

Psalm 16

Conserva me, Domine

A Miktam of David

Protect me, God, for I take refuge in You.

I have said to the Lord, “You are my Lord;

I have nothing good but You.”

The saints in the land are the noble ones;

in them I take delight.

Those who chase after other gods

multiply their sorrows;

their libations of blood I will not pour out;

their gods I will not name with my lips.

The Lord is my inheritance and my cup;

my future is in Your hands.

The boundary lines have fallen in my favor;

I have a beautiful inheritance.

I will bless the Lord who counsels me;

even at night I sense His advise.

I keep the Lord constantly before me;

He is at my right hand,

so I shall not be moved.

My heart, therefore, is glad;

My Glory rejoices;

My flesh also shall rest secure.

For you will not abandon Me to Sheol;

You will not let Your holy One rot in the Pit.

You will show Me the path to life;

In Your presence is absolute joy;

at Your right hand pleasures evermore.

Almighty God, the protection of all who trust in You, You did not abandon Your Son to the realm of the dead, nor let His flesh experience decay. Raise us to life with Him, that we might know the absolute joy of Your eternal Presence; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.8: Psalm 22

---

Psalm 22

excerpt Introit for Palmarum (Pre-KJV)

Deus, Deus meus

Be not Thou far from me, O Lord:

O my Strength, haste Thee to help me.

Save me from the lion's mouth:

deliver me from the horns of the unicorns.

My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me:

why art Thou so far from helping me?

Be not Thou far from me, O Lord:

O my Strength, haste Thee to help me.

Save me from the lion's mouth:

deliver me from the horns of the unicorns.

Almighty and everlasting God, You sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon Himself our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross. Mercifully grant that we may follow the example of His great humility and patience and be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen. (Collect for Palm Sunday)

7.9: Psalm 23 (KJV)

---

Psalm 23 (KJV)

Dominus regit me

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Lord Jesus, Shepherd of the Church, You lead us to restoration in the still waters of Baptism; You anoint us with oil; Your Chalice is more than we need. Lead us from the shadow of death to dwell in Your Father's house forever; for Your name's sake. Amen.

7.10: Psalm 30

---

Psalm 30

Exaltabo te, Domine

A psalm. A song for the dedication of the temple. Of David.

I will exalt You, Lord, for You have lifted me and have not let my enemies gloat over me.

To You, Lord my God, I cried for help,
and You healed me.

You, Lord, raised me from Sheol, kept me alive, You have, that I not go down to the Pit.

Make music to the Lord, you His saints, give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness.

For His anger lasts but a moment,
His favor a lifetime.

Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes with the morning.

When I prospered, I said, “I shall never be moved.”

Your favor, Lord, made my mountain stand firm;

You hid Your face—I trembled.

To You, Lord, I cried;

to the Lord I begged for mercy:

“What profit is there in my death,

if I go down to the Pit?

Can my dust praise You?

Can it proclaim Your truth?

Be merciful, Lord, and hear me.

Be, Lord, my helper.”

You turned my wailing into dancing.

You removed my sackcloth and dressed me with joy.

To You my heart now sings and is not silent;

I will give thanks to You, Lord my God, forever.

Heavenly Father, Your Son wept great tears in the night of His arrest, but His wailing was turned to dancing when You raised Him to glory. Even so, for His sake, dress us with the joy of the resurrection that we may give thanks to You forever. Amen.

7.11: Psalm 34, excerpt

---

Psalm 34, excerpt

Benedicam Dominum in omni tempore

A Psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, so that he sent him away.

I will bless the Lord at all times;

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

All that I am makes its boast in the Lord;

let the poor hear and rejoice.

Magnify the Lord with me;

let us exult His name together.

I sought the Lord and He answered me;

He freed me from all my fears.

They who look to Him are radiant;

their faces never blush for shame.

This poor soul cried, and the Lord heard him;

He saved him from all his troubles.

The Angel of the Lord camps 'round those who fear Him;

He delivers them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good;

blessed are those who take refuge in Him.

Fear the Lord, you His saints,

for those who fear Him will not be in need.

Young lions may go hungry and starve,

but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.

O Lord our God, it is You we seek, and You alone. Make us radiant and un-shamed, trusting that, in communion with Your saints, we shall lack for nothing good if we take refuge in You; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.12: Psalm 36, excerpt

Psalm 36, excerpt

Domine in caelo misericordia tua

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord.

Your loyal love, Lord, reaches to the skies,

Your faithfulness to the clouds.

Your covenant justice is like the high mountains,

Your equity like the great Deep.

You, Lord, preserve both man and beast;

How precious, God, is Your loyal love.

The sons of Adam find refuge in the shadow of Your wings;

from the rich bounty of Your house they are satisfied, from the river of Your delights You give them drink.

For with You is the fountain of life;

in Your light we see light.

Extend Your loyal love to them that know You,

Your covenant justice to the upright in heart.

Almighty God, in You is light and truth, and Your faithfulness knows no bounds. Bring us ever to the river of Your delights: the blessed Sacrament of Your Son's true body and blood; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.13: Psalm 40

---

Psalm 40

Exspectans expectavi Dominum

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

With persistent expectation, I waited for the Lord, and He stooped to me and listened to my cry.

He lifted me out of my slimy pit, my miry bog;

He set my feet on a rock,
gave me a firm place to stand.

He put a new song in my mouth,
praise to our God.

Many will see and fear;
they will trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, who does not turn to the proud,
or bow to lies.

Lord my God, many are the wonders you have done;
marvelous are Your plans for us;
You cannot be compared.

I would tell of Your acts,
yet they are more than can be told.

Sacrifice and offering You have not desired;
burnt offering and sin offering You have not required.

But You have given me open ears.

So I said, "Know this: I have come.

In the out-rolled scroll it is written of Me,

'My God I delight to do Your will;

Your Instruction has captured My heart.'"

I have proclaimed the good news of vindication in the great assembly;

I have not restrained My lips, as You, Lord, well know.

I have not hidden Your vindication within My heart;

I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;

I have not concealed Your loyal love and Your faithfulness from the great assembly.

Do not withhold, Lord, Your compassion from Me;

may Your mercy and truth always protect Me,

for innumerable evils surround Me;

my sins have overtaken Me, so I no longer can see;
they are more than the hairs of My head;
My heart fails Me.
Be pleased, Lord, to deliver Me;
hasten, Lord, to help Me.
May those who want to take My life be put to shame and humiliation;
may those who desire My demise be turned back in disgrace.
Let those who say to Me, “Aha! Aha!” be dismayed by their own shame.
But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
may those who love Your salvation continually say, “The Lord is great!”
But I am poor and needy;
may the Lord think of Me.
You are my help and My deliverer;
My God, do not delay.

Lord Jesus Christ, who delighted to do Your Father’s will, was obedient to death and proclaimed the good news of vindication to the living and the dead: be our help and our deliverer still, for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever. Amen.

7.14: Psalm 42

---

Psalm 42

Quemadmodum desiderat cervus

To the Chief Musician. A Maskil of the Sons of Korah.

As a deer pants for water brooks,

so pant I, God, for You.

I thirst for God, for the living God.

When can I come and appear before Him?

Day and night, my tears have been my food,

while they say to me continually,

“Where is your God?”

I remember, as I weep,

how I went with the throng

in procession to the house of God, a multitude keeping festival with shouts of thankful joy.

So why am I so cast down?

Why this tumult within me?

Hope, I must, in God,

for I will again praise Him

whose Presence saves.

I am cast down,

So I will remember you here

where the Jordan begins, the heights of Hermon—Mount Mizar.

Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts;

all your waves and billows have gone over me.

The Lord will command His loyal love by day,

at night His song shall be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

I will say to God, my rock,

“Why have You forgotten me?

Why must I go about in mourning because my enemies oppress me?”

Their taunts break my bones,

while they say to me continually,

“Where is your God?”

So why am I so cast down?

Why this tumult within me?

Hope, I must, in God,

for I will again praise Him

whose Presence saves.

Living God, You made us pant for life in You and have given us Your Word and Sacraments to satisfy our longing in the face of those who would mock Your loyal love. Be our hope and our rock until we join that multitude which keeps festival with thankful joy forever; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.15: Psalm 46

---

Psalm 46

Deus noster refugium

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

According to Alamoth. A Song.

God is our refuge and strength,
an ever-present help in trouble.

We will not, then, fear though the earth convulse and the mountains slide deep in the sea, though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains quake at its swelling.

The Lord of Heavenly Armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

There is a river whose brooks bring bliss to the City of God, the Sanctuary of the Most High.

God is in her—she cannot be moved;
God will help her—at break of dawn.

Nations rage, kingdoms collapse;
He gives the word: the earth dissolves.

The Lord of Heavenly Armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Come, see the works of the Lord who inflicts horrific devastations on earth:
He puts an end to wars throughout the world;
He shatters the bow and breaks the spear;
He burns the chariot with fire.

“Relax—and know that I am God.

I will be exalted over the nations;
I will be exalted over the earth.”

The Lord of Heavenly Armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Lord of Heavenly Armies, our refuge and our strength, when chaos rages and we are prone to despair, enable us to relax in the stronghold of Your love. By the Spirit-River, which flows from the Throne and the Lamb, strengthen us with the assurance of that eternal bliss which is ours in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

7.16: Psalm 47

Psalm 47

Omnes gentes, plaudite manibus

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

Clap your hands, all you peoples;

shout to God with a shriek of triumph.

For the Lord Most High is awesome,

a great King over all the earth.

He subdues peoples under us, nations under our feet.

He chooses our inheritance for us,

the pride of Jacob whom He loves.

God has ascended with a shout;

the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

Sing praises to God, sing praises;

sing praises to our King, sing praises,

for God is King of all the earth, sing praises with all your skill.

God reigns over nations;

God sits on His holy throne.

The nobles of the nations have gathered as the people of the God of Abraham.

For the shields of the earth belong to God;

He is greatly exalted.

Lord Jesus Christ, You have ascended on high amid angelic shouts of joy; dominion over all that exists is Yours, and Yours alone. Gather all the peoples of the earth to submit to Your just and gracious rule; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Psalm 51, excerpt

Miserere mei

For the chief musician. A Psalm of David,
when Nathan the prophet came to him,
after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

Have mercy on me, God,
for the sake of Your loyal love;
for the sake of Your great compassion erase the record of my rebellion.

Wash me thoroughly from my guilt;
cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my rebellion,
and my sin remains ever on mind.

Against You—You only—have I sinned and done this evil in Your sight.

So You are just when You speak, right when You condemn.

In iniquity I was born, I know;
in sin my mother conceived me.

You seek integrity in the inner self,
so teach me wisdom where I think I can hide.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones You have crushed rejoice.

Hide Your face from my sins;
wipe away all my guilt.

Create a clean heart in me, God;
a firm spirit renew within me.

Banish me not from Your presence;
take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

Give me again the joy of Your salvation;
sustain me with spirit un-shamed.

Merciful Father, for the sake of Your loyal love, create in us clean and un-shamed hearts, that we may obtain from You, the God of all mercy, full pardon and forgiveness; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 90

Domine, refugium factus es nobis

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

You, Lord, have been our abode throughout the generations.

Before the mountains were conceived,

before the earth and its life engendered,

from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

You turn mortals back into dust, saying,

“Children of Adam, return!”

For in Your sight a thousand years are like yesterday when it is past, like a few hours of the night.

You carry them away like a flood;

they are like a dream,

like grass that that sprouts in the morning—that sprouts and grows anew—

but by evening is cut down and withers.

For we are consumed by Your wrath and terrified by Your raging.

You have set our iniquities before You,

our secret sins in the light of your Face.

For all of our days dwindle away under Your wrath;

our years fade away like a sigh.

Seventy years may be given us;

eighty, if we are strong.

But even the best of them are toil and trouble;

quickly they pass, and then we are gone.

Who can comprehend the power of Your ire?

Your rage equals the fear that is Your due.

So teach us to number our days,

that our hearts may get wise.

Return, Lord, how long?

Have pity on Your servants!

Satisfy us early with Your loyal love

so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

As many days as You have afflicted us, make us glad;

as many years as we have seen evil.

Let Your servants see Your work,

Your children Your splendor.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us;

establish the work of our hands;

yes, the work of our hands, establish it.

Everlasting Father, our perpetual abode, we bear mortality within us, and the witness of our sin; yet in Your Son You have showered us with abiding grace. For His sake establish the work of our hands until He comes to gladden our hearts forever; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.19: Psalm 95 (KJV)

---

Psalm 95 (KJV)

Venite laudemus Dominum

O come, let us sing unto the Lord:

let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

In His hand are the deep places of the earth:

the strength of the hills is His also.

The sea is His, and he made it:

and His hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down:

let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For He is our God;

and we are the people of His pasture,

and the sheep of His hand.

Today if ye will hear His voice,

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation,

and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

When your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My work.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, "It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known My ways":

unto whom I swore in my wrath that they should not enter into My rest.

Lord Jesus Christ, our Good Shepherd, through Your humiliation You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

7.20: Psalm 103, excerpt

Psalm 103, excerpt

Benedic anima mea Domino

A Psalm of David.

All I am, bless the Lord;

everything about me, bless His holy name.

All I am, bless the Lord;

never forget all the good He has done.

He forgives all your iniquity;

He heals all your diseases.

He redeems your life from the Pit;

He crowns you with loyal love and compassion.

He satisfies you with good things

so your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord enacts vindication and justice for all oppressed.

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abundant in loyal love.

He bears no grudge; His anger never lasts.

He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve, nor requited us according to our iniquities.

As high as the heavens are above the earth,

so great is His loyal love toward those who fear Him.

He knows how we are formed;

He remembers that we are dust.

Our days are like grass,

like a wildflower that blooms, and when the wild blows over it, is gone, remembered no more.

But the Lord's loyal love is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him;

His covenant justice to their children's children who keep His covenant and remember to observe His rules.

The Lord has established His throne in the heavens,

His sovereignty is over all.

Bless the Lord, you His angels mighty in strength who perform His word, who heed the voice of His word.

Bless the Lord, all His heavenly armies, who serve at His command.

Bless the Lord, all His works, in all of His domain.

All I am, bless the Lord.

Merciful and gracious Lord, You know our weakness; You remember that we are dust. Grant healing and wholeness to Your people, and vindication and justice for the oppressed, that we may bless Your holy name in peace, for the sake of Your loyal love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

7.21: Psalm 121

---

Psalm 121

Levavi oculos

A Song of Ascents.

I raised my eyes to the hills.

Shall help for me come from there?

My help comes from the Lord, maker of heaven and earth.

He won't let you stumble;

your Protector never sleeps.

Israel's Protector neither slumbers nor sleeps.

The Lord is your Protector, your shade on your right hand.

The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord will protect you from all adversity;

He will protect your life.

The Lord will protect your leaving and returning,

now and evermore.

O Lord our Protector, whose care is constant and unrelenting, keep us safe and free from evil, both in our leaving and in our returning, until we reach our heavenly home where You live and reign with the Son and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

7.22: Psalm 130

---

Psalm 130

De Profundis

A Song of Ascents.

I cried to You, Lord,
from the depths of a night that seemed never to surrender to dawn:

“Lord, hear my voice!

Let not Your ears be deaf to my pleas.”

If You, Lord, kept track of sins,

Who, Lord, could stand?

But there is forgiveness with You,
that You may be feared.

I wait for the Lord;
all I am waits
and hopes in His word.

I wait for the Lord
like sentries watch for the morn;
more than sentries watch for the morn.

Israel, hope in the Lord;
for with the Lord there is mercy,
with Him, abundant redemption.

He shall redeem Israel from all her sins.

O Lord and our Redeemer, You hear the pleas of all who call for grace. Do not leave us in the depths of despair but bring us to the morning light of that mercy which shines in Him who is resurrection and light, Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 131

Sicut Juravit Domino

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

My heart, Lord, is not proud;
nor my eyes haughty.

I do not walk into great things,
nor things too profound for me.

But I have calmed and quieted myself like a weaned child,
like a weaned child with its mother;
Hope, Israel, in the Lord, both now and evermore.

Lord Jesus, ever gentle and humble, You trusted the care of Your blessed and faithful ever-virgin mother. Help us to bear Your gentle yoke and walk humbly with God, with whom You live and reign with the Holy Spirit now forever. Amen.

7.24: Psalm 139, excerpt

---

Psalm 139, excerpt

Domine probasti me

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

You have searched me, Lord, and You know me.

You know when I sit and when I rise;

You read my thoughts from afar.

You discern my work and my rest;

You know all my ways.

Before a word is on my tongue,

You know it completely, Lord.

You hem me in behind and before;

You have laid Your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is beyond me, too lofty for me to attain.

Where could I go from your Spirit?

Where could I flee from your Face?

If I'd ascend to the heavens, You'd be there;

if I'd descend to the Abyss, You'd be there.

If I'd rise on wings to the dawn,

if I'd settle on the far side of the sea,

even there Your hand would guide me,

Your right hand would hold me fast.

If I'd say, "Surely darkness will hide me, and light become night around me," even darkness would not be dark to You;

night would shine like day,

for darkness is as light to You.

For You fashioned my inmost being;

You knit me together in my mother's womb.

I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

Your works are wonderful,

I know full well.

My frame was not hidden from You when I was being made in secret, skillfully weaved deep in the earth.

Your eyes saw me as an embryo;

all the days ordained for me were written in Your scroll, planned before any came to be.

How precious to me, God, are Your thoughts,
how vast their sum!

If I were to count them,
they'd outnumber the grains of sand.

When I wake, I am still with You.

If only You, God, would slay the wicked;
if only men of blood would leave me alone—
men who speak maliciously against You, make themselves Your enemies and take Your name in vain.

Do I not hate, Lord, those who hate You?
Do not I loathe those who rise against You?
I hate them with utmost hate;
I count Your enemies my own.

Search me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my anxious thoughts.
See if there be an idolatrous way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

Dearest Lord Jesus, when You descended victoriously to the dead You brought light and immortality to light; when You ascended to the heavens You received power to reign, King of kings and Lord of lords forever. Enable us to trust that You know us completely, even if our knowledge of You is weak, too lofty to attain but by Your grace; or You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen.

7.25: Psalm 141, excerpt, with Saint Augustine, Confessions

Psalm 141, excerpt, with St. Augustine, *Confessions

Domini clamavi

A Psalm of David.

Let my prayer rise up before You as incense,
the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

I call to You, Lord; come to me now;

hear my voice when I cry to You.

How shall I call on You, my God,

if You I have not heard?

I bear mortality within me,

and the witness of my sin,

and the witness that You resist the proud.

Yet my desire is to praise You, mortal though I am;

for You have made us for Yourself, and our hearts are restless

‘til they rest in You.

Let my prayer rise up before You as incense,

the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Almighty and everlasting God, You resist the proud and bless the humble. Let our prayers rise as incense before You and, as You have promised, come to us, mortals though we are, and give our restless hearts the rest they seek in You; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.26: Psalm 141

---

Psalm 141

Domini clamavi

A Psalm of David.

I call to You, Lord; come to me now;

hear my voice when I cry to You.

Let my prayer count as incense before You;

my uplifted hands as the evening sacrifice.

Set a guard, Lord, over my mouth, keep watch at the door of my lips.

Let me not incline to any evil thing,

nor lend myself to those who craft iniquity;

let me not eat of their delectable fare.

Let the just strike me in loyal love;

let his rebuke be as oil on my head;

let me not refuse it,

for my prayer continues against iniquity.

When their judges are thrown over the cliff,

they will listen to my words, for they are sweet.

They shall say, "As the ground is plowed and broken, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol."

But my eyes are turned to You, Lord God;

in You I take refuge; leave me not exposed.

Keep me from the snares they've laid for me,

the traps of evildoers.

Let the wicked fall into their own nets,

while I pass by in safety.

Almighty and everlasting God, let our prayers count as sweet-smelling incense before You, and may honest rebuke be as oil on our head, turning us again to You and Your loyal love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.27: Psalm 150

---

Psalm 150

Alleluia. Laudate Dominum

Hallelujah! Praise God in His sanctuary.

Praise Him in the firmament, sign of His strength.

Praise Him for His mighty acts.

Praise Him for His greatness unmatched.

Praise Him with a blast of the shofar.

Praise Him with lute and lyre.

Praise Him with timbrel and dance.

Praise Him with strings and flutes.

Praise Him with loud cymbals.

Praise Him with loud crashing cymbals.

Let everything that breathes praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

*O God, our Father, whose praise is in the Church, uplift our hearts to the holiness of Your saving presence that we may adore You with Your heavenly hosts and worship You with joyful lips; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. ## 7.28: Isaiah 12

Isaiah 12

Confitebor tibi Domine

I praise You, Lord, for though You were angry with me,

Your anger waned, and You comforted me.

Truly, God is my salvation;

I will trust and not be afraid.

The Lord Himself is my strength and my song,

and He has become my salvation.

With joy will you draw water from the wells of salvation.

And you will say on that day,

“Give thanks to the Lord;

call on His name;

declare His deeds among the peoples, declare that His name is exalted.

Sing to the Lord, for He has done marvelous things;

let this be known through the earth.

Cry out and shout for joy, you people of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.”

Lord Jesus Christ, Holy One of Israel, our strength, our song, and our salvation: Your anger is but for a moment, Your favor for a lifetime. Help us to trust and not be afraid, knowing that You are with us always, until the end of the age, for the sake of Your name which is exalted throughout the world. Amen.

Benedicite omnia opera

All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You heavens above, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You angels of God, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You waters above, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You powers and thrones, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You sun and moon, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You stars of heaven, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You rain and dew, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You winds of Him, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You fire and heat, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You cold and heat, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You dews and snow, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You nights and days, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You light and dark, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You ice and cold, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You frost and snow, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You lightnings and clouds, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You mountains and hills, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You things that grow, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You pools and springs, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You seas and rivers, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You whales of the seas, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You birds of the air, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You beasts and cattle, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You sons of men, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You priests of the Lord, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You servants of the Lord, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You souls of the righteous, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

You who humble of heart, bless the Lord,

praise Him and serve Him forever.

Bless we the Father, the Son and the Spirit:

praise Him and serve Him forever.

Forever. Forever.

Almighty God, merciful and gracious and abounding in steadfast love, hear the prayers of Your saints and blessed martyrs who cry out to You for the sake of Your Church on earth, even as we would join our prayers with theirs that Your kingdom come, and Your will be done, to the praise of Your holy Name forever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.30: Magnificat

---

Magnificat

Magnificat anima mea Dominum

My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior;
for He has regarded His slave's low estate;
all generations will now call me blessed,
for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is His name.

He is merciful to those who fear Him,
from one generation to the next.

He has displayed strength with His arm,
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts;
He has dethroned the powerful,
but lifted up the weak,

He has satisfied the hungry with good things,
but sent the rich away with empty hands.

He has helped His servant Israel in remembrance of His mercy spoken to our fathers, to Abraham and his offspring forever.

Spirit of the Living God, You overshadowed the Blessed Virgin, making her womb the Ark of the New Covenant; even so overshadow and conform us to the image of her Son; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Nunc Dimittis

Nunc dimittis servum tuum

Now, Master, You may let Your servant die in peace:

Your word has been fulfilled.

Mine own eyes have seen Your salvation which You prepared in the presence of all peoples:

a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to Your people Israel.

Lord Jesus Christ, light of the Gentiles and glory of Israel: be present among us according to Your word and at the last present us pure and holy to Your heavenly Father, for the sake of Your saving love. Amen

7.32: Beatitudes

The Beatitudes

Beati pauperes spiritu

Note: In the Greek of Matthew 5, the word “blessed” in each beatitude is in the predicate position and placed at the beginning of each phrase for emphasis, as is the subject (“theirs”/“they”) in the second line of each couplet. The English accomplishes the emphasis through the use of italics. The translation renders the first eight beatitudes in iambic trimeter, the meter most commonly used in the spoken parts of Greek drama.

The poor in spirit are blessed;

Heaven’s Reign’s already theirs.

The bearers of grief are blessed;

to them shall courage come.

The restrained in strength are blessed;

it’s they who’ll inherit the Land.

The starved of justice are blessed;

it’s they who will be full.

The givers of mercy are blessed;

to them shall mercy come.

The pure in heart are blessed;

it’s they who’ll see God’s face.

The makers of peace are blessed;

it’s they who’ll be God’s sons.

The righteous harassed are blessed;

Heaven’s Reign’s already theirs.

You are blessed— when you’re harassed and insulted;

when every kind of evil is spoken against you falsely because of Me.

Rejoice and be glad:

your reward in heaven is great.

Lord of all and God of might, in Your beloved Son You have shown us the way of blessedness that turns the cheek to the smiters and carries the cross amid harassment and insults. By Your Holy Spirit, enable us to trust that His is the blessed way that comes with baptismal grace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7.33: Philippians Christological Hymn

Philippians Christological Hymn

qui cum in forma Dei esset

Though being in God's form,

Christ not deem His equality with God

as something He might by right exploit.

Instead, assuming the form of a slave,

and taking on human likeness,

He emptied Himself;

and while so sharing in our humanity,

He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to death,

even death on a cross.

Therefore God highly exalted Him and graciously conferred on Him

the name which is above every name,

so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend

—in heaven and on earth and under the earth—and every tongue confess, "Jesus Christ is Lord," to the glory of God the Father.

Take, Lord Jesus, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all I have and call my own. You have given all to me. To You, Lord, I return it. Everything is Yours; do with it what You will. Give me only Your love and Your grace; that is enough for me. Amen. (The Suscipe of St. Ignatius of Loyola)

7.34: Colossians Christological Hymn

---

Colossians Christological Hymn

qui est imago Dei invisibilis

The Beloved Son is the image of the invisible God.

He is the firstborn of all creation,

for all things in heaven and on earth were created in Him:

things visible and invisible—thrones and dominions, principalities and powers—

all things were created through Him and for Him.

He Himself is before all things, and in Him all things are held together.

He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning.

He is the firstborn from the realm of the dead,

so that He alone might be first in everything.

For all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell in Him, so that through Him all things might be reconciled to Him—

whether things on earth or things in heaven—having made peace through the blood of His cross.

O almighty Father, everlasting God, through Your Beloved Son, Your Image, You have made known to the nations what had been hidden from before the foundation of the world. In Him, being found in the substance of our mortal nature, You manifested the fullness of Your glory and made peace through the blood of His cross. With angels and archangels, principalities and powers, we bring our adoration and praise. Help us to live what we believe and sing, to the glory of Your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Based on the Proper Preface for the Epiphany of Our Lord)

Dignus Est Agnus

(Introit for Christ the King, from Rev 5:12; 1:6, Psalm 72)

Dignus est Agnus qui occisus est

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain

to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength

and honor and glory and blessing;

to Him be glory and power forever!

Endow the King with Your just judgment, O God;

the King's Son with Your covenant justice.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain

to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength

and honor and glory and blessing;

to Him be glory and power forever!

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in Your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under His most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen. (Book of Common Prayer)

9: Doxologies

The Great Doxology

Glory to Thee, Who hast shown forth the light.
Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, goodwill towards men.

We praise Thee, we bless Thee,
we worship Thee, we glorify Thee,
we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory.
O Lord and King, heavenly God, Father Almighty; O Lord, the only- begotten Son Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit.

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sin of the world;
have mercy upon us, Thou that takest away the sins of the world.
Accept our prayer, Thou that sittest on the right hand of the Father, have mercy upon us.

For Thou only art Holy;
Thou only art Lord, Jesus Christ,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
Every day will I bless Thee and will I praise Thy Name forever and ever.

Strengthen us, O Lord, this day to be kept sinless.
Blessed art Thou, O Lord, God of our fathers, and praised and glorified is Thy Name forever. Amen.
Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we trust on Thee.
Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statutes. [3 times]

O Lord, Thou hast been a refuge for us from generation to generation.
I said, Lord have mercy upon me; heal my soul,

for I have sinned against Thee.
O Lord, to Thee have I fled; teach me to do Thy will,
for Thou art my God.
For with Thee is the fountain of life;
in Thy light we shall see light.
Extend Thy mercy unto them that know Thee.
Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy upon us. [3 times]
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
Both now and forever, and from all ages to all ages. Amen.
Holy Immortal, have mercy upon us
Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy upon us.
Today hath salvation come into the world.
Let us sing praises unto Him Who is risen from the grave, and Who is the author of our life; for, having destroyed death by death,
He hath given unto us the victory and the great mercy.
